Buckeye, AZ 85326

Wednesday, March 8, 2017
1:30—3:30 PM

To register call 623.333.7942 or visit www.swfac.org

This is a double session workshop

In session 1 you will learn about the root cause of commercial sexual exploitation and why preventing sexual abuse is important to reducing the risk of children being sexually exploited.

In session 2 you will learn how to be an active bystander in child sexual abuse prevention and response. Learn examples of boundary violations and inappropriate behaviors and how you can make spontaneous and planned interventions that reinforce boundaries and protect children.

Learner Outcomes

- Learn what CSE of children is and what circumstances make children vulnerable.
- Learn what actions you can take as an active bystander.

Presented by Chris Panneton M.Ed—Prevention Coordinator
